

CCJP

CATHOLICS IN COALITION FOR JUSTICE AND PEACE

Membership - So why be a Member?

CCJP runs entirely on donations from Members and Supporters and through the goodwill of volunteers.

Members: $50 per year.

Supporters: Any amount you can afford.

The more members we have the stronger the voice!

Visit www.ccjpoz.org

CCJP

CATHOLICS IN COALITION FOR JUSTICE AND PEACE

FY 2012/13 in Review

Website visits - 2,538

Pages Viewed - 8,165

Emails & Updates - 30

Checkout Newsletters, Summaries & Transcripts - 14

CCJP actioned Submissions, Petitions & Letters - 10

Other Petitions Supported - 50

Sunday Seminars 9

Attendees 450

Speakers 10

John Menadue AO – Refugees – Appealing to our better Angels.

Jeff McMullen AO – The Intervention & Constitutional Change.
What does it mean for Reconciliation?

Donna Mulhearn – The Unseen Victims of War: on-going toxic legacy of the war in Iraq.

Samantha Seymour – Could you live on $35 a-day? Federal Government cuts to single parent welfare

Prof Lesley Hughes – What are we going to lose? Climate Change & Biodiversity

Dr. Chris Wright – The Politics of Skilled Labour Migration

Denis Doherty & Hannah Middleton – The Marines are coming, should we be worried?

Dr. Tim Batten – 2013 Election why bother? The contour of political disengagement.

Robert Fitzgerald – Can fairness & justice survive in a market economy?

Help Us increase our voices become a Member or Supporter

By becoming a member of CCJP or donating, you'll help support work for social justice and peace.

Pay Membership ($50 yearly) / Donate (any amount you can) by:

1. Credit Card via Paypal on our website membership page
2. Cheque – payable to Catholics in Coalition for Justice & Peace

Catholics in Coalition for Justice & Peace, PO Box A21, Enfield South, NSW 2133.

Visit www.ccjpoz.org