

CCJP

Catholics in Coalition for Justice and Peace

IT'S TIME TO CHANGE OUR CONSTITUTION

Ms Kirstie Parker is Co-Chair of the National Congress of Australia's First Peoples. She is a Yuwal-larai woman from northwest NSW., a daughter, a sister, an aunty and a mother and grandmother (Aboriginal way). Kirstie lives in Lismore.

The National Congress is a national voice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples. It is owned and controlled by its membership and independent of Governments.

All welcome to our first seminar for 2015

Date: Sunday March 15

Time: 10.am — 12.30pm

Venue: 9 Alexandra Ave, Croydon

Morning tea and lunch provided. A donation of $10 appreciated.

Contact: 02 97450820

ccjp@bigpond.com

web www.ccjpoz.org