

“There is no humanity...

...in taking someone's mobile phone away so they can't keep in touch with their family, or their legal representatives.

By design, it is cruel – to people coming to our country in good faith, thinking that we will give them refuge.

The Government's latest asylum seeker bill is an abomination.

It is not amendable.

It is trashable.”

Andrew Wilkie, Tasmanian Independent MP

Help Senator Lambie decide

Thank you to the thousands of people who emailed their Senators this week to keep mobile phones in detention. You might have seen that Peter Dutton's Bill made it through the lower house. Now, Senator Lambie could decide if the Bill makes it through the Senate.

Right now, can you complete this quick poll on Senator Lambie's website and ask her to vote NO on this cruel Bill?
