

A spectacular evening of music to fill the soul

Simon Tedeschi and Kevin Hunt Charity Concert

Simon, the internationally renowned concert pianist, and Kevin, the highly acclaimed, award winning jazz pianist are coming together to create an exciting and magical event. When Simon and Kevin connect they weave music that is exhilarating, joyous, playful and heartfelt.

What makes this event even more special is that they will be playing two stunning Stuart and Sons pianos, hailed as the best.

Join us for a night of classics to jazz fusion, from Debussy to Gershwin to Ellington

Friday 23 November 7.00pm

Independent Theatre 269 Miller St, North Sydney

Purchase your tickets on -line www.theindependent.org.au/whats-on or phone 1300 302 604

Tickets $38 (inclusive of all booking fees)

All proceeds from the evening will be donated to the MicroLoan Foundation Australia

MLFA empowers the poorest women in Sub Saharan Africa to break the cycle of poverty, by giving them micro loans and training to start their own micro businesses

www.microloanfoundation.org.au

Offering women a hand up not a hand out

